PROFILE

I am an ambitious and hardworking third-year cyber forensics student at MG University, driven by a passion for digital security and investigative analysis. With a strong foundation in cybersecurity principles, I have honed my skills in using advanced tools like Wireshark and Kali Linux to detect and mitigate threats effectively. Known for my dedication, attention to detail, and problem-solving mindset, I approach every challenge with resilience and a commitment to excellence. My goal is to contribute to creating safer digital ecosystems while continually expanding my expertise in the ever-evolving field of cyber forensics.
